A HUNGRY MAN IS AT MY DOOR

By Grace Noll Crowell

A hungry man is at my door,
What shall I do?
My fire is warm, my loaf is sweet,
And I have you,
Sufficient for my needs . . . but Oh,
The wind is cold,
A hungry man is at my door
And he is old;
And he is weary, waiting to be fed
I cannot dine
Until I break in three this loaf
I thought was mine.
I cannot rest beside my fire
Unless I share
Its warmth with him, and find a cloak
That he can wear.
This done—and he upon his way
Along the street—
I find a warmer fire—my loaf
Grown doubly sweet.

Don't you sometimes get tired of hearing all these discourses on the radio and reading all the articles in the magazines about how to solve our economic problem?

First this one, and then that one expounds in scholarly fashion what we have got to do, and how long it is going to take before we can enjoy prosperity once more.

I verily believe every university professor in the United States has his own particular solution of restoring prosperity. I—for one—am fed up on all this stuff.

First we hear that the trouble is over production. Then another professor gets up on a soap box and tells his fellow colleague that he is all wrong. That it is not over production but the loss of the foreign market. Then another professor bobs up and shouts—"Tain't so; our trouble is due to the gold standard. 'You're a liar,' shouts another—"the gold standard hasn't got a thing to do with it. The trouble is so-and-so." And thus the battle rages.

Now down deep in all our hearts we all know what the trouble is,
but we just won't admit it.
We know only too well, that our pitiful plight has come about by the violation of the common laws of life.

For instance, we all know that two and two make four. And incidentally we also know that you cannot do evil and expect good.
You cannot hate and expect love in return. You cannot break the laws and escape punishment. You cannot be false to others and expect them to be true to you. You cannot expect others to help you unless you help them. You cannot receive unless you are willing to give.

We have revised the Golden Rule to read—"Do others before they get a chance to do you." We have permitted greed, and envy, and malice, and jealousy, and hatred to creep into our lives to the extent that we are all saturated with it.
"Make money honestly if you can,"
we cry—and in the next breath proclaim—"but make it anyway."

Show me a man who has a real desire in his heart to share what he has with others, and I'll show you ten thousand that won't share a dime.

Show me an employer who is laying awake at night trying to
for his employees, and I'll show you ten thousand who are laying awake at night trying to figure out something for himself.

Of course you won't find any one who will admit any of this. Like the man who uses liquor and tobacco to the excess and then blames his wife's cooking for his poor health, it is always difficult to see the mote in our own eye.

Like the statistician who said—
"Tell me what you want to use the figures for, and I'll make them prove what you want them to," we never will own up that we—as individuals—are to blame in any way for our present precarious economic condition. And as for giving up anything in the way of material possessions;—of course—we merely smile and say—"Impossible!"

But as long as we won't abide by the basic laws of life, and assume

YVONNE GAIENNE CROWNED NEW WINTER QUEEN

Colorful Coronation Ceremony. "Chief Truckee" and His Band of Indians, American Legion Color Guard and Drum Corps, and Ski Club Take Part.

One of the most colorful ceremonies ever held in Truckee was conducted last Sunday on the new ice rink in the winter sports park when Yvonne Gaienne, newly elected winter queen received her crown before a large crowd of spectators.

At the east end of the rink, an Indian village was set up with Indian tipis, camp fires and small evergreen trees. At the right of this a large snow throne was erected. The east end of the rink was roped off for the services.

Promptly at 2:00 P. M. a parade consisting of the color guard of Truckee Post American Legion, the Legion Drum Corps, a cutter bearing the Queen-Elect Miss Yvonne Gaienne, Jack Frost in a suit of white trimmed with silver tinsel and King Winter in his flowing red robe, silver crown and long white beard, and a second cutter bearing the Sacramento Winter Queen Miss Katherine Mazingo, followed by members of the Truckee Ski Club in their red sweaters with club emblem, formed on Commercial Row at the post office and moved towards the Winter Sports Park.

In the mean time the Indian braves and maids under the leadership of Chief Truckee in most elaborate Indian costumes gathered about their camp fires and awaited news of the coming of the Pale Face princess.

Upon arrival of the parade at the ice rink, the queen-elect, together with King Winter and Jack Frost, was drawn in the cutter over the ice by the ski club guard of honor, led by the Legion Color Guard and drum corps.

The queen-elect was escorted to the Indian village and introduced to "Chief Truckee" by King Winter. The Indian chief welcomed her to his village and after introducing her to the other Indians escorted her to the large ice throne, where with a setting of legion color guard on either side, and the drum corps, ski club guard and Indians all standing at rigid attention, he lifted the silver crown which rested on a white satin pillow held by Jack Frost and crowned her Queen Yvonne—in the name of the Truckee Winter Sports.

The Sacramento Winter Queen immediately mounted to the throne and congratulated the new Truckee Winter Queen. The drum corps struck up a lively piece of music and the queen's subjects loudly cheered.

King Winter and Jack Frost were then introduced to the crowd and

POSTMASTER TO IMPROVE POST-OFFICE

With a desire to serve the local townspeople more effectively, Postmaster Mary Rutherford, has made arrangements to make some effective changes in the post office.

The private mail boxes will be moved from the side of the office to the street front, thus making it more convenient for box holders to get their mail, and with the light from the large street windows, the numbers will be more easily discernable.

The money order and general delivery windows will be moved to the side where the boxes are now located.

The change will take place next Sunday.

The new arrangement will also make it easier for box holders to get to their boxes at night, on account of the improved lighting system.

FANCY SKATERS ENTERTAIN CROWDS AFTER CORONATION

At the close of the coronation ceremony on the ice rink last Sunday, Miss Lovey Edmunds and George Moore gave a very fine exhibition of fancy skating before the big crowd, which was greatly applauded.

This is Miss Edmunds' first year of skating, and she has done remarkably well.

George Moore is one of the old time skating stars of this region and he has not lost any of his artistic ability.

TOM SAWYER WINS FIRST PRIZE AT MARDI GRAS BALL

Miss Katherine Mazingo, Sacramento Winter Queen Presented With Key To Truckee Winter Sports. Many Original and Unique Costumes Worn.

Truckee's Second Annual Mardi Gras Ball has come and gone, but the memory will linger on for some time.

The Masonic Hall was packed to the limit, and at times the dancers had difficulty in finding sufficient room to dance last Saturday evening. Many very original costumes were worn, and the hall was a mass of colors of all shades of the rainbow.

Miss Yvonne Gaienne, Truckee Winter Queen was taken to the stage and presented to the dancers by William Englehart, chairman of the Mardi Gras Committee. She received a big ovation by the crowd.

Miss Katherine Mazingo, Sacramento Winter Queen was another guest of honor, and she was also escorted to the stage and presented by C. Edmunds, manager of Truckee Winter Sports, who after introducing her presented her with a large gold key decorated with ribbons, to the Truckee Winter Sports. Mr. Edmunds also presented the Sacramento Queen with a season pass to all Truckee winter sports.

Miss Mazingo acknowledged the hearty applause and by special request favored the dancers with two songs which she sang most delightfully to the accompaniment of a guitar.

While the dancers passed in a grand march, a committee of judges viewed each costume to determine the most original one for a special prize of $10. Miss Catherine Rossarini, dressed as Tom Sawyer, was awarded this prize.

It was impossible for us to get a complete list of all who attended the Mardi Gras Ball and the costumes they wore, but the following were noticed: Miss Rossarini as Tom Sawyer, Mrs. James McIvers Jr. as Huckleberry Finn, R. Gregory as Ophelia, Dr. and Mrs. Guthridge as the Two Black Crows, William Englehart as Indian Chief, Boyd Campbell and William Englehart Jr. as Two Little Boys, Lovey Edmunds as a Spanish Senorita, Celeste Planett as a pirate, Mrs. Planett wore a paper costume of Truckee Republicans and Trade in Truckee, Mrs. Joe Henry as a Yama Yama Girl, Pete Passenetti as a Spanish treader, Naldene Fetterly as a Summer Girl, Mrs. Frank Gaienne and Mrs. Gardner as Little Girls, Mrs. Stanley Martin as a Little Girl, Miss Anna Zorich and Miss Dorothy Filipek as Little Girls, Miss Amelia Zorich as a Chinese Girl, Marion Follet as a Cossack, Verda Rhea Euer as a Russian Girl, and Jess Maxsom as a Russian.

SIERRA TAVERN DIAMOND BURGLARS CAPTURED IN RENO

Get Sentence Of One To Five Years For Robbing Woman In Reno.

C. K. Krolak, age 20, and Joseph Marks, age 21, daring youths who stole $2,000 worth of diamonds and jewelry from the private apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Tim O'Hanrahan, owners of the Sierra Tavern last Thursday morning, are now in Nevada State Penitentiary at Carson City, Nevada serving a sentence of from one to five years.

The youths thought they were master mind thieves, but they have found out that crime does not pay, as they were arrested in Reno last Friday by police detectives at the Reno Y. M. C. A. for being suspicious characters. Upon being searched Mrs. Tim O'Hanrahan's diamonds and other jewelry were found in their possession, and in addition the youths confessed they had stolen $130 from the apartment of the Y. M. C. A. housekeeper.

They were sentenced by the Reno judge to one to five years for the Reno robbery. Upon their release from the Nevada prison, they will be tried and sentenced for the Sierra Tavern burglary.

According to an investigation, the two youths arrived in Truckee on Wednesday night of last week. They found the night entrance of the Sierra Tavern unlocked, and quietly walked up the carpeted stairs to the third floor and entered an unoccupied room. On Thursday morning they started to prow about the hotel and entered the room occupied by Mr. and Mrs. O'Hanrahan. They quickly grabbed two purses from the stand and dresser and without awakening either of the occupants made their getaway.

In the two purses were Mrs. O'Hanrahan's jewels, consisting of a gold Hamilton wrist watch, a pair of pendant earrings with three diamonds in each, a white gold wedding ring with six diamonds, an engagement ring with one large and 12 small diamonds, and 2 square diamonds, and a gold ring set with a gold nugget. The jewelry was valued at $2,000.

When the burglars were caught, one of the earrings was missing, and they were unable, or would not, explain where it was. The rest of the jewelry was returned to Mrs. O'Hanrahan.

The youths claim that they came from L. A. to Truckee, but that their homes were back east. They were well dressed and well mannered, and had all the appearances of being college boys.

SACRAMENTO WINTER QUEEN MAKES MANY FRIENDS WHILE HERE

Miss Katherine Mazingo, Sacramento Winter Queen, who was the guest of honor at the Mardi Gras Ball and Truckee Winter Queen Coronation, was very warmly received during her stay in Truckee.

Miss Mazingo has a most delightful personality and a captivating smile which brought forth many compliments from local people wherever she appeared.

She has a remarkably sweet voice, and the two songs which she sang at the Mardi Gras Ball were received with much appreciation and applause.

It was a great pleasure for Truckee to have her as an honored guest, and we sincerely hope that she will make us another visit before the winter sports season is over.

AERIAL BOMBS ANNOUNCE THE MARDI GRAS

A feature of the Mardi Gras was the use of aerial bombs.

One was set off at sundown on Saturday to announce the beginning of Mardi Gras, and others were used on Sunday to announce the beginning and ending of the coronation, and as a salute to the new 1933 Winter Queen.

TRUCKEE SKI CLUB MEET NEXT SUN.

Jumpers of All Classes Will Participate. Salome Race To Be Added Feature. Club Invited To Attend Arrowhead Ski Club Tournament.

Mardi Gras Chairman

WILLIAM ENGLEHART

William Englehart is entitled to no small amount of praise and high commendation for his labor and enthusiasm as chairman of the Mardi Gras Committee in charge of the celebration just concluded.

There was an immense amount of detail involved in connection with the Winter Queen Contest, the Mardi Gras Ball and the Coronation, and "Bill" did a very fine job, indeed.

Mr. C. Edmunds, manager of Truckee Winter Sports was also a very active member of the Mardi Gras Committee and is entitled to high praise for his untiring efforts to make the Second Annual Mardi Gras such a success.

Miss Catherine Rossarini, another member of the Mardi Gras Committee is to be congratulated and commended.

GRASS VALLEY UNION GIVES US A SPECIAL PLACE IN HISTORY

Truckee appreciates a paragraph of publicity which recently appeared in the Grass Valley Union.

The particular paragraph which appeared in last Sunday's issue, however, has made us all gasp for breath. It reads:

"The Truckee Ski Club is featuring expert ski jumping each week end. A favorite ski jump is from Truckee to Bald Mountain, a distance of four miles."

What a jump! Imagine sailing thru the air on ski wings for four solid miles!

What the Union intended to say apparently is what appeared in a recent issue of the SIERRA SNOW SPORTS reading—"that a favorite ski TRIP was from Truckee to Bald Mountain, a distance of four miles."

J. C. TITUS HAS RARE OLD COIN

In last week's issue of the Truckee Republican was a United Press news story about a man in Placerville who had a $2.50 gold piece dated 1835 which was attracting the interest of local coin collectors.

Mr. J. C. Titus of Truckee called at the Truckee Republican office a few days ago and exhibited a rare old $5.00 gold coin dated 1834 which he received in payment for services rendered 31 years ago while over in the Carson Valley in Nevada.

The coin is as bright and yellow as the day it was coined in the mint.

We are happy to establish a new record for old gold coins in Truckee and thus beat the Placerville collector by a year.

STOCKTON—(UP)—"Send out the wagon," said Manuel Ocampo over the telephone. "I'm going to sock my wife." Ocampo proved to be a man of his word, and must spend 10 days in jail.

The Truckee Ski Club will hold their club meet next Sunday on the winter sports grounds. There will be ski jumping of all classes, also a womens cross country ski race and a salome race. The salome race is a new feature.

The meet will practically be a tournament for the Truckee Ski Club members only, and the showing of the local members at this meet will determine those who will represent the Truckee Ski Club at the State Ski Championship Meet at Big Bear Lake on February 11, 12 and 13.

The Truckee Ski Club has received an invitation from the Arrowhead Ski Club, a newly organized ski club in the southern part of the state to participate in their club tournament to be held on January 27, 28 and 29. Due to financial conditions of the local ski club it will not be possible to send a representation.

"HARD TIMES" SKATING PARTY SATURDAY NIGHT

There will be a "Hard Times" skating party on the new ice rink on winter sports hill next Saturday evening, at which time short races will be held for boys and girls.

Hot dogs and coffee will be served around the big bon fires.

For this night, the ski club tickets will not be honored for admittance.

LEGION DANCE SATURDAY NIGHT AT LEGION HALL

Truckee Post, American Legion will hold a dance at Legion Hall next Saturday night.

The Snoline Melodians will provide the music.

A feature of the evening will be special accordion music.

RAY ALBEE TAKES OVER MEAT MARKET

Buy's Out A. Hankammer's Interest And Is Now Sole Owner of Truckee Meat Company.

The partnership of Ray Albee and A. Hankammer has been dissolved and Ray Albee is now the entire owner of the Truckee Meat Company, one of Truckee's leading business establishments.

The deal was put thru last Saturday, and the new management is now in effect.

On account of Albee also owning a market in Fallon, Nevada, he has placed Pat Gerrity in local charge here.

Gerrity conducted a meat market in Sparks, Nevada for many years.

Hankammer has a host of friends in the region and it was a great surprise to learn that he had decided to leave Truckee. To a representative of the Truckee Republican he stated that his future plans were not completed at this time, but that he intended to go down in the valley and take a vacation. He stated that later on he might locate in Nevada.

"Hank"—as he was commonly known, had a ready smile and a reputation far and wide as being very courteous. He was an active member of the Truckee Chamber of Commerce and a charter member of the Truckee Lions Club.

In addition to the retail meat business, Albee also buys and sells cattle, and conducts a slaughter house and wholesale meat trade.

SHAKEUP IN NEVADA COUNTY OFFICERS AT NEXT ELECTION

According to the political rumblings which have reached Truckee from the county seat, there is going to be plenty of fireworks at the next county election, and a number of changes in officers is looked for.

It is no royal secret that a great many in Nevada County would like to see a new county clerk, a new tax collector and treasurer, a new assessor, and a new coroner. And it is safe to say even at this early date that the above named officers are going to have plenty of opposition at the next election.

While there is also considerable feelings about the county that some of the other officers must also go, the opposition is not quite so keen.

In view of the fact that Truckee and the 5th District are getting no co-operation from the county seat, it naturally stands to reason, that a change of officers will be most welcome to the taxpayers and voters of this region.

One thing is most apparent, and that is, that Truckee and the 5th District are going to play an important role in the selection of the next lot of officers for Nevada County.

GO FORTH TO MEET THE NEW YEAR WITH AN UNTROUBLED HEART

Editorial from Lions Club Magazine

"Your Heavenly Father Knoweth."

There is a story of the last quarter of the last game between two great universities. The score was a tie. The big center said to the quarterback:

"Buddy, I'll make a hole as big as a barn, and you go through."

They leaped from the huddle, the ball was snapped, a hole was made, and the quarterback plunged through.

Down under the squirming mass a few seconds later the center said, "Great stuff, old man; you did it. You'll be known for all time."

Said the quarterback with his arms wide over the goal line, "I haven't got the ball."

Could there be a greater tragedy? To quaff the cup of prosperity, to touch the heights of success, to go over the goal line of life, and to lack the essential thing, is the supreme tragedy of all.

Many are the post mortems conducted these days over the corpse of prosperity, but after all is said and done we put our finger on the festering sore when we admit a tragic loss of faith during that period when "things were in the saddle."

We allowed God to fade out of our lives. He became a memory rather than a living hope. We did not trust enough in that Living Force, that Spiritual Personality undergirding the universe, whom we have come to call "Our Father"; and that underneath us ever, always, are the Everlasting Arms.

Simple, old-fashioned, did you say? Yes. But it is what we need today. Our fears would fade into nothingness and our hearts would grow calm and strong did we but trust more in The Everlasting Mercy that never faileth. "Your Heavenly Father Knoweth." It is the secret of the untroubled heart as we face the Pilgrimage of 1933.

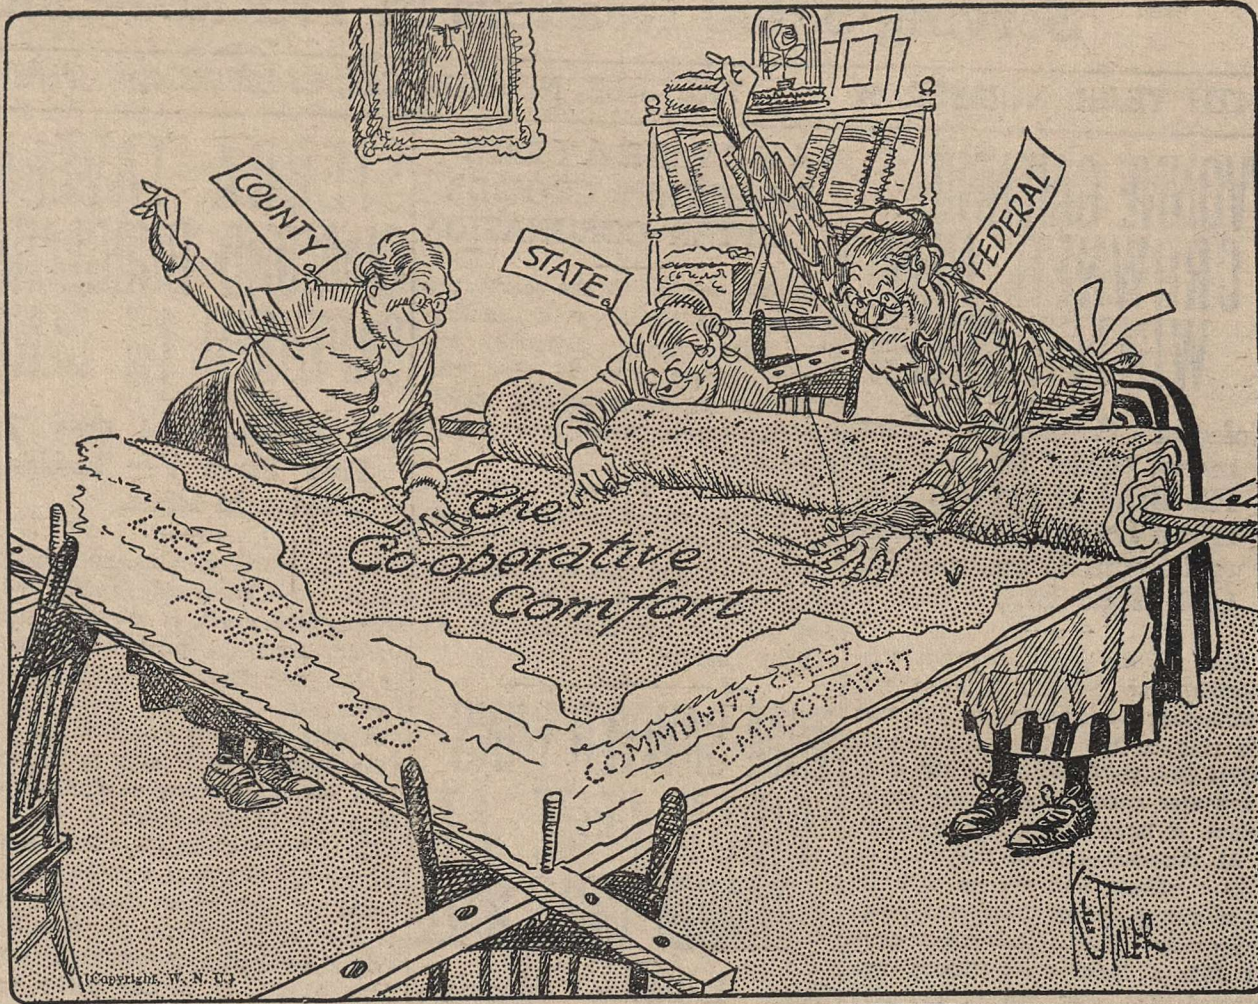

RADIO LISTENERS

The fact that radio programs might have millions of listeners at any given moment is much better known than the exact number of actual listeners attracted by any particular program. An advertising agency tried to make a test of a certain program recently. While it was on the air, the agency telephoned to 200 people and found that four of them were listening. The agency estimated from this that the total audience must have been around 20,000.

That seems a rather low figure, but when one considers how many different programs ordinarily are available at the same time, he may conclude that a single program which can hold 20,000 listeners is doing pretty well.

The next things the agency might try to find out are how many of the 20,000 were enjoying the program, how many were listening with only part of their minds while they read or conversed or played cards, and how many were listening in order to tell each other how rotten the program was. The advertising effectiveness of a sponsored program would depend to quite an extent on the honest answers to those queries.

The Ladies' Aid

MYTHICAL SUPERANNUATION

Even sociologists and economists spend a good deal of time grieving over things that are not so. There has been a lot of worry in this country during the last few years over the "scrapping" of workers—both manual and white collar—after the age of 40, in favor of youth. An impression has been spread that any man of woman reaching the extreme age of 45 is lucky to have a job even in good times.

According to a study conducted by Ralph G. Hurlin of the Russel Sage Foundation, facts do not support this view. He finds that in 17 occupational groups the proportion of people employed over 45 years of age has not gone down at all in the last 40 years, but has gone up. And not by a small margin, either. Even in salesmanship, a calling which is supposed to demand particularly the vigor and buoyancy of youth, there are 20 per cent more employees of 45 years of age or over than there were in 1890.

There should be nothing surprising about this, when you consider all the recent discoveries in psychology which show that the middle-aged man can learn new things as well as young people, and all the medical discoveries that make it easier for the middle-aged to keep fit, and all the value of ripened experience and judgment in a highly competitive society.

If men and women of 50 or more should be forced out of employment in large numbers hereafter, it may be for quite a different reason—to enjoy a long, leisurely old age and make room for the young in a world where it is no longer necessary or possible to keep every able person employed all his life.

YOUR GOVERNMENT

It is hard for the citizen to realize that he is the government. He feels so apart from his government, he seems so thoroughly detached from his government that he is inclined to feel that he is one thing while his government is another thing.

The citizen's sense of separation from his government has permitted the damnable political growth that is eating up the United States like a frightful cancer.

The average political speaker talks to the people as if the government were something wholly apart from the people. The politician tells his hearers that the government is going to do so and so. He speaks of the resources of the government. He speaks of the appropriations that the government will make. He elaborates on how the government will help unemployment, on how it will assist the farmers, on how it will aid sick business.

If you want to get a true picture of your relations to the government, forget the word "government" and put in its place the word "you." When the politician tells you that the government is going to do so and so, you make it read YOU are going to do so and so. When the politician tells you that the government will make such and such appropriations, you make it read, "YOU will make such and such appropriations," for it will be you who will make the appropriations. The government hasn't a dime of its own. What it gets, it must get from you. When the government spends money, it is not spending its own money; it is spending your money. When a politician says to you:

"The government is going to set aside two billion dollars to help bolster up banks, railroads, and other privately owned institutions," you can get the right slant by interpreting that statement to read:

"YOU are going to set aside two billion dollars of YOUR money to help bolster up banks, railroads, and other privately owned institutions."

When a public official announces to you:

"The state is going to construct a hard surfaced road costing a million dollars to extend from So-and-So to Such-and-Such," you must, in order to get the right idea, make that pronouncement read:

"YOU are going to construct a hard surfaced road costing a million dollars of YOUR money to extend from So-and-So to Such-and-Such."

POLITICALLY SPEAKING

By HOMER L. ROBERTS

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
SACRAMENTO, Cal., Jan. 19—(UP)—Promised sensations failed to materialize in the first week's investigation of Governor Rolph's administration by a senate committee.

Of course, there were hints of scandal aplenty, but nothing was disclosed that hadn't previously been rather thoroughly aired by the newspapers.

For example, Colonel Walter E. Garrison, ousted director of public works, virtually accused the governor of ordering the state highway commission to build a $400,020 road through Rolph's ranch in San Mateo county. The governor, however, insisted he "didn't know a thing about it."

There was a charge that the governor's office solicited funds to defeat Senator J. M. Inman of Sacramento (Inman is head of the investigating committee) for reelection. The Rolph forces asserted revenge as the real reason behind the inquiry.

An attempt was made to prove the governor was mixed up in the San Francisco state building annex deal, because Rolph's son-in-law represents the company which financed the building. Evidence was offered to prove that the rent of $62,500 a year was excessive, and should be $27,500 a year.

Of far more importance was the passage of a resolution asking the Reconstruction Finance Corporation for a loan of $580,000 to increase the state labor camp program for unemployed. Within three days the R. F. C. authorized an initial loan to the state of $287,000 or this purpose.

Such."

Always put the word "you" in place of the word "government;" put the words "your money" in place of the words "appropriations," "taxes," and so forth; then you will be able to realize clearly just what the whole thing is about. Ask yourself:

"Am I willing to have these expenditures made?"

"Am I willing to have these things done? Am I willing to slave and sweat and starve to maintain luxurious, unnecessary bureaus, commissions and boards?"

The questions that you should ask yourself are these:

"How much government can I afford? How much government am I willing to pay for?"

You should tolerate no more government than you can afford. You should endure no more government than you are willing to pay for.

You are the boss. Assert your authority.

THE POET

Sits in poverty, eyes glowing,
Man, with liquid phrases flowing
From his pen, and plainly showing
What the learned ones are knowing,

Paints in colors fastly clinging;
Chords are struck, perpetually ringing.

From the seer and prophet bringing Happiness and joyful singing.

With his broom of wisdom sweeping Hazy cobwebs not worth keeping.
In their wake comes beauty creep-

ing
To humanize, and subdue weeping.
Hidden depths he soon discovers.

Gleefully he sings to lovers,
While cadenced word his own pain covers—

Want is gnawing. Bleak night hovers.

TAHOE REGION NEWS

By CELESTE

A snowstorm which started Saturday afternoon continued for several days although only a few inches of snow fell during the entire storm.

The meeting of the Tahoe Ski Club held on Friday 13th at the Tahoe Womens Club House proved to be a huge success both socially and financially. A brief business session presided over by Vice President C. Weller Atherton was followed by the showing of a two reel comedy starring Will Rogers. Junior Henry furnished the projection machine and quite ably operated same.

Many old fashioned dances were enjoyed as well as amusing games. Bridge furnished entertainment for eight couples. Some sixty people attended, including a number from Truckee and every Tahoeite assisted in furnishing the folks from Truckee an enjoyable evening. It is to be hoped that the Tahoe Ski Club will have many such opportunities in the future and a hearty invitation has been extended to Truckee from C. Weller Atherton, acting President of the Club.

Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Fred Cowell and committee. Mrs. Cowell and Mrs. Marie Henry wish to thank the members who so gladly donated cakes and sandwiches and otherwise assisted in serving and preparing the refreshments. According to schedule the "Donation Basket" was passed by Miss Celeste Planett and some $10.25 was contributed to the cause of defraying expenses for the Queen's costume and trip to Sacramento.

Don't forget the next social meeting of the Ski Club on January 27. According to reports the evening will be as good as ever and entertainment galore. Miss Mildred Watson and Miss Sarah Crone will be the charming hostesses at the especial party.

A Ford truck belonging to J. Adlington of Brockway Pines was partially wrecked when the driver hit a large rock in the road on the bend near Capt. J. Healey's home at Carnelian Bay. As they were driving at a slow rate of speed the truck merely rolled over on one side enabling the occupants to jump free without injury.

The many friends of Harry Johanssen of Tahoe Park will be glad to know that he retrieved his stolen suitcase which was taken from his machine while he was parked outside the Chum Hotel in Sacramento during the Snow Carnival Festival. Mr. Johanssen was jubilant over the recovery of his vast array of medals secured for his many entries into sports of all kinds including one medal for receiving first place in all classes for seven consecutive years in Norway. The contents of the suitcase had been taken to a pawn shop in Sacramento where the police traced same and for a small sum Mr. Johanssen secured his valuables although the balance of the contents had not been found as yet.

Responding to the invitation extended to Tahoeites to visit the Ice Skating Rink in Truckee from Frank Gaiennie a number of sport-loving Tahoeites motored to Truckee last Thursday night and enjoyed ice skating. The rink is in excellent condition and skating to peppy music proved to be highly entertaining. Among those accepting the invitation were Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Henry, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Anderson, Miss June West, Carl Bechdolt, Donald Cowell, Robert Cowell, Kathleen Anderson, Junior and Patsy Henry, Miss Celeste Planett, Mrs. Fred Cowell, Carl Vanni, Miss Sarah Crone and several others.

The Department of State Highways made an official record and count on Sunday, January 15th of all automobiles being used on the Tahoe Lake roads for future reference.

erence as to the advisability of keeping the roads open around the lake. A checker was stationed at the "Y" out of Tahoe City and another at Pomin, four miles from Homewood. Owing to the snowstorm which prevailed during the entire day it is feared that only half of the automobiles in use at Lake Tahoe at this time made an appearance for the purpose of checking. By actual count there are 177 persons living within the radius from Tahoe City to and including Meeks Bay and vicinity. On the north side counting from Tahoe City to Brockway there are 135 persons and most of these people have automobiles and do use them frequently during the winter months when it is possible.

It is hoped that the unflinching efforts of those who did take their machines out in the disagreeable weather on Sunday will prove successful for the benefit of everyone.

Mrs. J. J. Planett and daughter Celeste left for Oakland to spend the rest of the winter months. Mr. Planett is located in Oakland in business which he hopes will be permanent. Miss Planett plans to attend the Beauty College in San Francisco and will return this spring.

Dear Suffering Readers:

It has given me a great deal of pleasure to supply "items" and "old news" for the Truckee Republican for the past fifteen months. At all times I have tried to appreciate the fact that while our personal ego enjoys seeing our name in print, to also use a little discretion when requested not to.

To make my articles interesting, amusing and constructive has more than taxed my ability many times. Although I may not have acquired a "unique technique" I sincerely hope I have contributed my bit in interesting Tahoe and Truckee readers.

I want to especially thank all those who have so cheerfully and ably assisted me in my "collection" of news without which I could not have done this work. In a small community the same names will appear week after week which I realize is monotonous to the suffering readers. However, one must appreciate the fact that to deprive the column of human interest, would render the object nil thereof.

And to our editor, Mr. Stanley Bavler, I wish to thank for this wonderful opportunity in assisting him with this column. The untiring efforts of Mr. Bavler to give credit where it is due and especially to the Tahoe Region, the advertisement derived therefrom at all times tends to "indebt every Tahoeite for his services rendered so cheerfully. Any one reading a back number of the Truckee Republican of four years ago will realize how much Tahoe did not feature in this paper.

In my absence Mrs. Marie Henry will continue to furnish interest for my column with creditable ability.

Adios Amigos.

Yours for bigger and better "columns."

Mr. and Mrs. Matt Green who have just returned to Tahoe after several months vacation in Sacramento were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Bliss on Tuesday night, and on Monday Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Pomin entertained for the Greens.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Marshall of Tahoe wish Swanee to express for them thru this column their most sincere and heartfelt gratitude and appreciation to the many generous friends and neighbors who rendered such willing and invaluable assistance to them during Mr. Marshall's recent severe illness. There is nothing in life which so warms the human heart as prompt and kindly succor and sympathy during a time of trouble and tribulation.

While on a trip to Sacramento during winter sports week, Harry Johansen, caretaker at Tahoe, parked his car for a short time in an alley. Returning he found the car lock had been broken and his suitcase stolen. It had contained extra clothing and some gold and silver medals won for sharpshooting and cross country skiing in Sweden before coming to America, also a pair of solid gold cuff links given him by his mother years ago. The next day he made a round of Sacramento pawn shops hopefully seeking to find them and was rewarded by finally locating and recovering his three most cherished gold medals and the cuff links, which the pawnbroker said had been brought in by a Mexican. No trace could be found of the silver trophies however, much to his regret.

Miss Sarah Bacchi, who came up to Tahoe from Sacramento to spend the Christmas holidays with her family at Lake Forest, has decided to remain now for the rest of the winter.

On January 10th Mr. and Mrs. George Bacchi of Lake Forest and Mrs. Ed Reuschenburg of Tahoe collaborated in giving one of the most pretentious and enjoyable parties this district has seen for some time. A crowd numbering over thirty gathered at the Bacchi's Italian Restaurant at Lake Forest where an elaborate turkey supper was served around 2 P. M. The guests were seated at two long tables laden with just about every known delicacy, in the center of the main dining room where a radio furnished music for the diners. At the conclusion of the sumptuous repast this room was cleared of chairs and tables for dancing which occupied the remainder of the evening.

The celebration was in honor of the departure of Mr. Bacchi and his daughter Katherine for Sacramento where they will remain for several months, and the first birthday of little Earl James Nelson, who received some lovely gifts and had a tiny birthday cake with one candle in the center, which greatly delighted him. The little folks present were given a table of their own in an adjoining room where they too ate their fill of turkey and other goodies. Those who enjoyed the delightful evening were Mr. and Mrs. George Bacchi, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Reuschenburg, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Watson, Mr. and Mrs. George Allan, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Swanson, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Si Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Jones of Reno and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Marshall, Misses Sarah and Katherine Bacchi, and Mildred Harris, Mrs. Minnie Swift, Mrs. Vanni, Constable Carl Bechdolt, Chick Welch, Carlo and Pedro Vanni, Millard Porter Tivy and Ray Nelson and the little folks.

Much to the delight of us folks who live south of Tahoe City, the snowplow is keeping our roads open for us. We had about decided we had been relegated to that class of folks "out of sight, out of mind." Here's hoping the snowfall for the rest of the winter will continue light and that we may not have to endanger our lives going to town in light boats on rough waters, which take their toll each year of human lives.

When Bert Watson, accompanied by his wife, was returning home from Truckee on Sunday morning early after attending the Mardi Gras Ball he stopped to adjust his chains and wipe the snow from the windshield. During the operation his watch fell from his pocket unnoticed. Arriving home he failed to note his loss until Monday. Returning to the spot where he had stopped he found the watch in the snow intact, except for a broken crystal.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Nelson motored to Sacramento on Friday to visit friends, returning to Tahoe Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Soll of Pine Lodge held open house on Sunday. Among those who braved the storm were Mrs. J. J. Planett and Celeste, Jack Eblen and Fred Planett, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Henry and children Junior and Patsy, Ray Matchem, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Pomin and Miss Maggie Pomin and Mrs. and Mrs. Charles Swanson.

The check of cars taken by the highway commission over Sunday and Monday must have been sufficient to warrant further snowplow service on this route for the plow made its appearance again on Tuesday morning, much to the delight of southside residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Howrigan returned to Tahoe on Monday after having spent a delightful four weeks vacation in Sacramento.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Anderson were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Nielsen of Sunnyside on Sunday.

Professor Henry Hinkle of Stanford University will return to Tahoe on Wednesday night where he will remain for several days with his family.

Reno visitors on Saturday included Mrs. Bliss Hinkle and daughter Sue, Captain Hans Hansen and Harry Grayson, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Nielsen and Axel Almqvist and family of Emerald Bay.

Herman De Fries, clerk at the Tahoe Mercantile, left on Sunday for Sacramento. He does not expect to return again this winter. His place will be filled by Red Anderson.

Delbert Yeaman, son-in-law of Mr. Knox, the grocer of Sunnyside, accompanied by a friend, came in on Monday to inspect the Knox property dwellings and will leave again on Tuesday or Wednesday.

HOBART MILLS

By MRS. R. McDONALD

Miss Ruth McLeod has returned to her home here after a three weeks visit with Miss Bernice Thomas in San Mateo.

The Hobart Auto Club held a meeting at the Hall on Monday evening with the president, B. J. Clark, in charge. Some matters of business were attended to and indefinite plans made for a card party in the near future. A reduction of dues was voted upon and it was decided to change to twenty-five cents instead of fifty cents as the club is out of debt and in no need of immediate funds.

Miss Julia Titus and a friend are spending several days with Miss Titus' sister Mrs. Erle Martin in Hobart, having come up from Sacramento to enjoy the snow.

Miss Florence Gordon, who received a broken leg some weeks ago in a coasting accident, is reported as doing nicely.

Erle Martin is confined to his home here with a light attack of the flu.

A large number of Hobartites went to Truckee Friday evening to attend the public installation of the new officers for the coming year. The ceremonies were ably conducted by E. Paris and enjoyed by all who went.

Mrs. Stanley Snyder and son recently returned to their home at Norden after a few days spent in visiting relatives and friends about the Bay Cities.

Mrs. Clarence N. Libby of Ole Summit returned to her home this week after a week spent in the capital city. Mr. Libby spent a few days at Sacramento on business.

Many unusual things happen from time to time at Tahoe by Mr. and Mrs. Chris Nielsen tell an unpleasant as well as unusual tale. It seems that when the extreme cold spell struck Tahoe recently a baby skunk found a tiny door under their house intended to admit cats only. He crawled in and made himself at home, nestling in the sawdust and sacking which protected the waterpipes. Any efforts of the Niensens to dislodge him with sticks or stones but aroused his ire and he must have retaliated with some very strong language, for the family decided to allow him to remain without further molestation. As he has not been seen around for several days now, the Niensens are hoping he has taken lodging elsewhere.

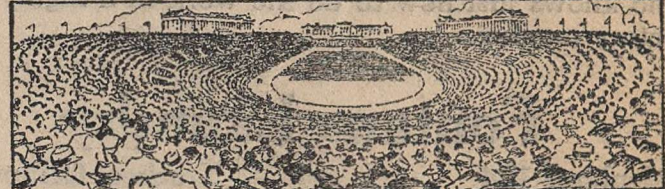

On Monday night Constable Carl Bechdolt of Tahoe Inn was host at dinner to the male residents of Tahoe who are property owners. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss what steps should be taken to straighten out the legal complications which involve the Commons. Carl Bechdolt, Bob Watson and William Crone were chosen as a committee of three to go at once before Judge Lendis of Auburn, who is trustee of the Commons, and seek his advice on what would be the best procedure to follow.

Among Tahoeites who attended the Truckee Mardi Gras Ball on Saturday night were Mrs. J. J. Planett and daughter Celeste, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Henry, Fred Planett, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Watson and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Swanson. All had a wonderful time and enjoyed every moment of the evening. Again much credit should go to our general editor, who seems to have an unlimited supply of co-operation. If only all of you could have seen the dignified Mr. Bavler in his priestly robes and white paper bonnet taking tickets at the door! We feel certain that the large crowd present must have insured the success of the Mardi Gras Ball. Let's hope we have another soon!

VOLUNTEER FIREMEN DASH THEIR BUTTONS

Rather Than Polish Them, the Brigade in English Town Resigns in a Body

The fire brigade of Southwick, near Brighton, England, has fought its last fire and resigned. Before its retirement, however, it placed on record photographic evidence of its resentment of the causes which inspired it—all of them, Chief Gould, Secretary and Engine Driver Watson and the nine brigadiers, are revealed in their dilapidated uniforms. The last straw was when a subcommittee of the Southwick Council ordered them to polish their buttons.

Engine Driver Watson told a reporter:

"There is no doubt that we are or rather were, a proper ragtime brigade, but it was not the fault of the members. The station is a wooden shed. If we want to clean the engine, we have to do it out in the road, the station is so small its roof leaks and water gets into the engine, making it difficult to start.

"We have no smoke helmets. If uniforms are left at the station, they get moldy in a week, and we turn out to daytime fires in our ordinary clothes, as we cannot go home to change. If our clothes are damaged, we get no compensation. My uniform is six years old and is threadbare, and the peak of my cap is frayed by use.

"Several of the brass helmets are so old that the chin straps have gone and we have to tie them on with bootlaces."

AUTO COLLISION BRINGS SALAD AND ROAST PORK

MORGAN HILL, Cal., Jan. 19—(UP)—It isn't every automobile accident that results in lettuce salad and roast pork.

Two trucks recently collided on a highway near here and lettuce was scattered far and wide. William Dunham of Santa Monica, driving a truck load of live hogs, crashed into the wrecked trucks.

The hogs, thrown from the truck, immediately began eating the lettuce. Then Robert Marston of Gilroy, with a load of chickens, ran into the wreck and the chickens joined the hogs in the banquet.

To climax the melle a tow car was obtained to haul the trucks into town and two hogs killed in the crash were loaded. At the town limits the truck burst into flames and the hogs, already stuffed with lettuce, were roasted.

BRAND NEW GOLD STORY

SHASTA, Cal., Jan. 19—(UP)—It pays to put in a new floor, particularly when the building happens to be located in an old mining town.

Robert Litsch found it necessary to replace the ancient floor of the store originally operated by his father, Charles J. Litsch.

When the old floor was torn up, a considerable amount of gold was found where it had sifted through the cracks. The gold was recovered by panning in a nearby creek.

Start In Emergency

A plan for starting the car without use of the starter or hand crank is suggested by the Free Emergency Road Service of the California State Automobile Association, which sounds a warning that extreme care must be observed to avoid accident in applying the method. Here is the plan: Raise one rear wheel from the ground, turn on the switch, open the gas throttle, shift to high gear, and spin the rear wheel forward. This should start the motor. Be careful to disengage the clutch before letting the wheel down on the ground again and use care not to get hands or clothing tangled in the wheel.

Assessed Value Of Property 44.77 Per Cent Of Market Value

By MELVIN LORD

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Jan. 19—(UP)—Continuing in its "role" of a fact-finding body, the California state senate is out to determine whether county taxes cannot be equalized in some way as well as levies.

The movement was inaugurated in the upper house by Senator Arthur H. Breed, Oakland, with the introduction of a series of three resolutions dealing with county fiscal problems.

One of these resolutions asks the state tax research bureau to make a report on the assessment of property by the various county assessors and make comparisons between actual market value and assessed value.

Such a report already has been submitted to the legislature by the bureau, showing, that in Nevada county, for instance, the assessed value of 25 pieces of property within corporate limits was 38.36 per cent of the actual or market value. The bureau report showed an evident need of equalization of assessment ratios inasmuch as the range between counties is wide.

According to the report, the "inside" assessment rate ranges from a low of 21.65 per cent of actual value of property in Shasta county to a high of 66.18 per cent in Stanislaus county. The average for the state as revealed by a survey of 2,591 parcels of property was 44.77 per cent.

Another proposition upon which the senate has asked information concerns a comparison between incomes of agricultural and non-agricultural property and the resulting effect on taxes levied thereon.

Indicating the legislature may also apply economy measures to county salaries, the senate has asked for a report on all such salaries over which the state lawmakers have control.

MUDDY WATER IS IN GREAT DEMAND

ORLAND, Cal., Jan. 19—(UP)—Strange as it may seem, there's a big demand for muddy water in Glenn county.

And to satisfy this craving, the United States Reclamation Service is planning to open the gates to let the flood waters of Stony creek be used this winter for irrigation purposes.

According to the farmers, the silt carried by the high water, besides carrying rich plant food, which builds up the soil, also aids in making irrigation easier through tightening up the loose ground.

INGLEWOOD—(UP)—California's sunshine is more important than Florida's. This week two fires started here from the rays of the sun shining through a glass bottle.

Check and Double-Check!

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Jan. 19—(UP)—Maybe crime does pay, after all.

According to Charles Stone of the state bureau of criminal identification, a man recently arrived here from Texas and attempted to cash a check. The check was admittedly good, but no one could identify him.

"Finally," Stone said, "the man said he had a jail record in Texas and his fingerprints were on file. He suggested he be identified by means of this record. We had the prints and as a result the check was cashed."

Fishing Most Popular Sport In California

By J. F. McLAUGHLIN
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Jan. 19.—(UP)—Despite a slight decrease in the number of licenses issued, fishing still is one of the most popular activities of California sportsmen.

A total of 242,394 angling licenses were issued in the year to bring in receipts amounting to $496,390, as compared to 248,319 licenses and $508,875 in receipts, according to the annual report of the state division of fish and game.

Of the total collections for angling licenses, Nevada county fishermen paid $4,293.

As a possible explanation of the continued popularity of fishing in the state, the division report reveals that the bureau of fish culture has been operating 25 hatcheries, two tank stations, 30 egg-taking stations and 73 aging and brood ponds.

From the hatcheries approximately 68,000,000 trout and more than 9, 000,000 salmon were planted in the last two-year period.

The bureau also has continued the program of raising fish to larger sizes, and during the biennium 390,000 trout ranging from 5 to 9 inches in length were planted from rearing ponds, the report said.

While 62,000,000 eggs were collected from wild fish and 22,000,000 from domestic broods, it still was necessary to purchase nearly 17,000,000 eggs during that period, the report said.

"There is great danger of infecting our hatcheries and streams with fish diseases from imported eggs so the desirability of developing a source of supply from within the state and entirely under the control of the fish and game commission is apparent."

While revenues have decreased "the necessity of abandoning valuable works has been avoided by careful management," the report claimed.

"LOVE RACKETS" TO BE BANISHED

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Jan. 19.—(UP)—There will be no more "love racks" in California if Assemblyman Lawrence Cobb's bill passes the legislature.

Assemblyman Cobb, who hails from Los Angeles, would require all complaints for damages in civil actions involving breach of promise to marry, alienation of affections, or criminal attack to be placed on a "secret file" when filed in court hereafter.

Thousands of persons are black-mailed annually by racketeers to quash such charges merely because of fear they will be published, Cobb said.

12,288 AGED PERSONS RECEIVING STATE AID

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Jan. 19.—(UP)—The number of aged indigents receiving aid from the state has been increasing at the rate of eight every day, according to the state department of social welfare.

A total of 12,288 aged persons were receiving state aid on November 30 as compared with 9,596 on January 1, 1932, an increase of 2,697, a report revealed.

In the same period the monthly expenditures in the aid program increased from $110,823 to $136,888.

RAILROAD SCRIP OFFERS BIG CUT IN TRAVEL COST

Railroad scrip books, offering "wholesale" transportation at a reduction of twenty-five per cent under the regular fare, will be placed on sale beginning February 1 at all Southern Pacific ticket offices. It was announced by the company today.

Good interchangeably for travel on all railroads west of Chicago and New Orleans, the scrip books contain 3000 miles of transportation worth $108 and will sell for $81, it was stated. A smaller unit book valued at $72 will sell for $54, with both types of scrip good for one year after date of purchase, according to the announcement.

This reduction in travel cost will be of particular benefit to commercial travelers, it was pointed out, although the scrip books will be available to the general public for normal first class transportation on all trains.

The reduced fares mark the re-establishment of a type of "wholesale" ticket that was in general use some years ago, it was stated.

DESTROY YOUR OLD LICENSE PLATES

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Jan. 19.—(UP)—Old license plates should be destroyed as soon as motorists have obtained their 1933 plates, according to Russell Bevans, state registrar of motor vehicles.

"Several cases have come to the attention of the department of motor vehicles in which dishonest persons have obtained possession of discarded plates and used them in the theft and sale of cars and for other illegal purposes," Bevans said. "Immediate destruction of the plates will prevent any such misuse of them."

NEW TYPE OF FINANCIER

LODI, Cal., Jan. 19.—(UP)—Defauling foreign nations might solve their debt problems through study of the methods employed by a Lodi citizen.

Thirty-five vineyard owners in this vicinity held the notes of John Patzer, local barber, amounting to a considerable sum, and John didn't have any money. However, the vines of the noteholders needed pruning, and John got busy.

He contracted to do the pruning in payment of his notes. Then he hired 35 men to do the work, giving them in payment tickets good for tonsorial treatment at his barber shop. The tickets were made transferable in order that they might be applied on grocery bills and other debts of the pruners.

Result: Vineyard pruned, pruners employed, merchants' business increased—and Patzer's notes liquidated.

Christian Science

"Truth" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon Sunday, January 22, in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

The citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon will include the following from the Bible: "Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed; And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free" (John 8:31, 32).

The Lesson-Sermon also will include the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The best sermon ever preached is Truth practised and demonstrated by the destruction of sin, sickness, and death. Truth makes a new creature, in whom old things pass away and 'all things become new.' Passions, selfishness, false appetites, hatred, fear, and sensuality, yield to spirituality, and the superabundance of being is on the side to God. good" (p. 201).

SACRAMENTO.—(UP)—Before he fell asleep in a poolroom, John Wilson tied his shoes around one arm. Four hours later he awoke, to find someone had stolen them while he slept.

SACRAMENTO.—(UP)—Eighteen chickens had a bad night here when an earth tremor hit Sacramento. They broke every window in the henhouse and someone called the town constable.

DRINKS NO WATER FOR FIFTY YEARS

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 19.—(UP)—Charles Fautley, "going on 106," is not on the water wagon.

For 50 years now Fautley has chewed water, drinking only coffee, tea, milk and a secret "elixir of youth" made of herbs in an alcohol solution.

While this practice may have something to do in extending Fautley's life, the ability to live longer than most persons seems to run in the family.

Fautley claims his grandmother died at 112 when she fell downstairs and broke her neck, while his father lived to be 109 and his mother, 105 years old.

40 CENTS PER DAY IS MINERS' WAGES

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Jan. 19.—(UP)—California's "depression miners" averaged approximately 40 cents a day last year as amateur gold panners according to Walter W. Bradley, state mineralogist.

The gold production of the state for 1932 is estimated at $1,648,000, of which $450,000 represents the work of the small placer operators driven to gold-bearing streams by lack of employment.

"Individually these 'tenderfoot' miners, possibly 10,000 in number, averaged as much as 40 cents a day, but in the aggregate they were an important factor in California's answer to leveling off the depression," Bradley declared.

STATE IS SPENDING $34,000 MONTHLY TO AID THE BLIND

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Jan. 19.—(UP)—Increasing sharply during recent months, the state is spending $34,000 per month in aid for blind persons at the present time, according to a report of the state department of social welfare.

The state's share of the cost of the blind aid program for the 11-month period ended December 1 was $341,713, while an equal amount was paid by the various counties.

State records show that the counties and state on January 1, 1932 were paying $48,974 a month to aid 1,327. By December the number of cases requiring aid had increased to 1,938 and the payments $68,002.

THESE HENS MUST WORK OVERTIME

MERCED, Cal., Jan. 19.—(UP)—There will be no more 5-day weeks and 6-hour days for Merced county poultry.

In an effort to produce more eggs per hen and bigger profits for poultrymen, a drive is being made to lengthen their working days, says W. H. Allison, Jr., county farm advisor.

"This is done by installing lamps in the poultry houses," he said. "If a hen can spend 14 to 15 hours on the job in the summer, her winter working days can be increased to 13 hours without harmful effects."
